Thanks Mom & Dad Fund®, the only umbrella organization raising funds to fill gaps in vital services for seniors in Georgia, is pleased to announce that Georgia State Senator Renee Unterman will be honored during the annual Thanks a Million Gala on Thursday, November 9, 2017 at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis.

Senator Unterman, who chairs the Senate Health and Human Resources Committee, has long been a champion for Georgia's elder citizens. Unterman began her career in the General Assembly in 1999, bringing experience as a nurse and social worker to the Georgia legislature.

The Thanks a Million Gala provides a unique opportunity to honor parents, grandparents and mentors for their sacrifices and contributions to today's leaders. WSB-TV's Jocelyn Dorsey and Michael Kelly, House of Card's "Doug Stamper" return as Masters of Ceremony for the gala featuring a cocktail reception, dinner and silent auction with items including golf at The Legends at Chateau Elan, tickets to the Atlanta Opera, a stay at the King and Prince Resort, a "Doug Stamper" voicemail answer for your phone and dinner at The Palm in Buckhead among its many unique and fun items for bidders.

Senator Unterman will honor the people in her life who inspired her to make public service, and serving the most vulnerable in our communities, seniors and children, her life's work. "I grew up knowing that respecting my elders was much more than opening a door or offering a steadying hand on a stairway- I had to speak up and work on behalf of the generations ahead of me."

Tickets are $125 each and sponsorships are available. Sponsors to date include Amerigroup, Georgia Natural Gas, WSB-TV - Channel 2, Kaiser Permanente, Georgia Power, ARC, Aetna, AARP, Co-Designed, Walgreens, Harrison Mosack Realtor, Georgia Association of Community Care Providers, Kroger, Jackson Spalding, CareSource, General Building Maintenance, Georgia Health Care Association, Legacy Trust Advisors, U.S. Auto Sales, and 1023 Construction.
