Atlanta Career Rise Work Force Initiative

HIGH-DEMAND SECTORS IN METRO ATLANTA | According to the Georgia Department of Labor, healthcare, IT and TDL are areas of high demand and job growth in Georgia, and will account for a sizeable portion of new jobs created in the state through 2020.

- Metro Atlanta's healthcare workforce is growing at the rate of 18,700 healthcare job openings per year and is expected to grow by approximately 50 percent over the next five years.

- Currently there are more than 96,000 IT jobs in the Metro Atlanta area, with an additional 14,500 jobs expected over the next five years.

- There are nearly 132,000 transportation, distribution and logistics jobs across the region today, with at least 5,700 additional jobs expected over the next five years.

WorkSource Metro Atlanta is a coalition of five local WorkSource boards including: Atlanta, Atlanta Regional, Cobb, DeKalb and Fulton. Together, we provide leadership in developing and deploying programs and services that meet the needs of both employers and job seekers in Metro Atlanta.

Atlanta CareerRise, a part of the United Way of Greater Atlanta, was founded in 2011 through a grant from the National Fund for Workforce Solutions and the support of local investors. Our work helps meet employers' needs for skilled workers and assists frontline workers and the unemployed advance their careers and achieve financial stability.

Georgia Tech Atlanta PIPELINE Project

- The Georgia Tech Atlanta PIPELINE Project serves as a catalyst for cultivating innovative industry-based training opportunities for high school students through apprenticeships.
- The PIPELINE Project partners with Purpose Built Schools, an Atlanta based nonprofit committed to breaking the cycle of poverty through high performing schools, and leading companies in the Atlanta area to facilitate internships and apprenticeships for high school students.
