

SENIOR CENTER INNOVATIONS

DRUMMING CLASSES

PROJECT SUMMARY

Drumming Classes are more than music; they are movement and exercise, popular social activities, and provide much more to centers and seniors. This popular innovation has helped senior centers enliven their programming and partner with musicians for these fun interactive classes.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Intergenerational drumming circles have been successful
- Working with music teachers or another local musician can help break down barriers to trying new drumming classes
- Participants love the energy and enthusiasm from Atlanta to Moultrie these programs have been very popular

PARTNERS

- Local Musicians
- Afterschool Programs

We just can't say enough about how much we love this program. Drumming is so much fun for our seniors!

CHALLENGES

Drumming classes can be a difficult idea for many potential participants. It is important to find someone with energy and enthusiasm to engage people who may be unsure about a loud program like this

Visit <http://thanks.fund/Innovation> for more ideas

Senior Center Innovation Grants were supported by:

Department of Human Services
Division of Aging Services

